PREFACE

It is a matter of great pleasure for us to present to the scholars of oriental literature and admirers of ancient Indian culture, this volume of Descriptive Catalogue of Sanskrit Manuscripts, preserved in the Sahitya Sansthan Research Library, Udaipur

The Sahitya Sansthan, established in 1941 as a research department of Rajasthan Vidyapeeth, Udaipur, made special efforts since its very inception to set up a manuscript section in its research library for the use of research scholars of ancient Indian history, culture and literature. It has now a large collection of manuscripts in various languages as Sanskrit, Prākṛta, Pāli, Apabhramsa, Brīj, Gujarātī, Hindi and Rājasthānī. This volume contains information regarding 1599 Sanskrit manuscripts selected from this collection.

Manuscripts included in this volume are dated between 14th and 19th centuries. The earliest manuscript of this catalogue is Viṣṇubhakti-candrodayaḥ written in Vikrama Samvat 1407 (1350 A.D.). There is one palm leaf manuscript written in Devanāgarī script. All other manuscripts are written on thick country made paper. Some manuscripts contain commentaries in Rājasthānī, Gujarātī, Brīj and Hindi languages.

Manuscripts compiled in the catalogue have been classified and subclassified subjectwise in the following order —

- 1 Vedic literature

9 Miscellaneous

This collection contains some very important works concerning Vedic literature and Tantra, viz Jayākhyaśaṃhitā, Sātvatsaṃhitā, Pāncirātrotpati, Nārdayasaṃhitā, Vaiṣṇāśaṃhitā, Matangaparmēśvara, Ajitāgama, Sūśmatantra, Karaṇāgama, Kāmikāgama etc Such works have been mostly available in Southern India and scarcely available in other parts of the Country Their availability in Rajasthan has been on account of wide prevalence of Śaiva and Pāncarātra sects in erstwhile Mewar region of Rajasthan There is a great possibility of finding such works even more from this region if resourceful efforts are made for it.

Manuscripts included in this catalogue belong mainly to the private collections of the following who kindly presented them to the Sahitya Sansthan Research Library for the use of scholars

- 1 Sri Maharaj Shivanan Singhji of Shivarati, Udaipur, Rajasthan
- 2 Sri Bhagawatilalji Bhatta, Udaipur, Rajasthan
- 3 Sri Rajvaidya Padmanabha Dholkiya, Rajkot, Gujarat.

The Catalogue has been compiled according to the scheme of the Ministry of Education and Social Welfare, Government of India Alphabetical index of works and authors and appendix containing beginning and end and colophons of some important works with brief commentaries on them have been given at the end of the volume for the benefit of the scholars

Sahitya Sansthan expresses its gratitude to the Ministry of Education and Social Welfare for the grant of financial assistance on the publication of this volume

I take this opportunity to pay tribute with profound gratefulness to the Founder Upkulpati of Rajasthan Vidyapeeth, Sri Janardan Rai Nagar for his constant guidance and encouragement to the scholars and workers of the Sahitya Sansthan in their academic and research ventures

I am thankful to Dr R P Bhatnagar and Dr B M Javalia for their cooperation in compilation of this catalogue Sincere thanks are due to Shri Shakti Kumar Sharma and Dr Geharilal Sharma for their assistance in preparing this volume
